

Lebanon is the 35th Member State of the Enlarged Partial Agreement on the Cultural Routes of the Council of Europe

The Phoenicians' Route

The Routes of El legado Andalusi

The Routes of the Olive Tree

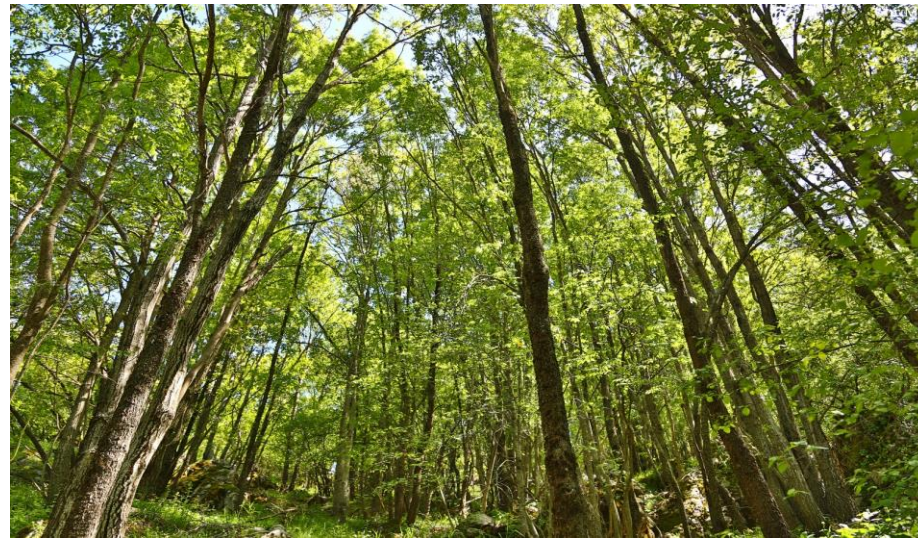

Iter Vitis the Wine Route

Lebanon joined on the 21st of April 2022, the EU Iter Vitis institution (Cultural wine routes).

The description of our beloved country from Iter Vitis came this way:

“An astonishing country with an inestimable heritage linked to viticulture from an archaeological and archaeobotanical point of view”

The first Lebanese wine route is situated in the Jabal Moussa UNESCO Biosphere Reserve.

Batroun Wine Routes – North Lebanon

Historic and Archeological Heritage of the wine- relate to Phoenicians since 6000 Years

Discovery of an Iron Age wine press at Tell Burak in southern Discovery in 2014 of a very rare wreck in Malta, and before, in 1999, two wrecks from the 8th century BC. J.C in front of Askalan in the Mediterranean

Historic and Archeological Heritage of the wine- related to Phoenicians

Autochthonous vines

These autochthonous varieties are found in different areas and in the natural Reserves

Lebanon: the country of Natural reserves and surrounding vineyards

WINE TASTING NOTES OF CEDAR

Shouf Cedars

Lebanon: the country of Natural reserves and surrounding vineyards

Tyre Coast

Lebanon: the country of Natural reserves and surrounding vineyards

Juniper berries

Yammouni

Lebanon: the country of Natural reserves and surrounding vineyards

Mashaa Chnaniir

Lebanon the country of Natural reserves and the surrounding vineyards

Tannourine

Lebanon: the country of Natural reserves and surrounding vineyards

Jaj Cedars

Lebanon: the country of Natural reserves and surrounding vineyards

And the most recent one -----
Mount Hermon

Lebanese Viticultural landscape

Lebanese Viticultural landscape

Lebanese Viticultural landscape

LEBANON : CULINARY HERITAGE

Zahleh Is Lebanon's Only UNESCO Creative City of Gastronomy!

Zahlé was recognized as a UNESCO Creative City of Gastronomy in 2013.

This city is full of vineyards and is the home of Lebanon's most famous wineries and arak distilleries.

Mountains tomatoes with olive oil and Sumak

Mechtah bread

Lebanese oriental ice cream with Ashta and Postachop

LEBANON : PEOPLE associated with the WINE tradition

